

I oppose the further raising of ownership limits for radio and television stations, and the relaxation of broadcast-newspaper cross ownership restrictions. I am deeply concerned about the narrowing of editorial control over the news media, which has already begun with the earlier consolidation of broadcast ownership.